School News! NEWS

- St Joseph's Day – Last Monday, the whole school celebrated St Joseph's Day. We had a beautiful Mass in the school hall (where the first St Joseph's Church was before the one we have today was built). It was lovely to see some parishioners attending our mass too! The day ended with the sun coming out and every child and adult getting an ice cream from Marco Magliocco's ice cream van! (see photos attached) Marco is a past pupil, so it was a real treat to see him back at St Joseph's.
- Mater Christi Day – Last Friday, the whole school attended a special Mass to celebrate being part of a wider school family, The Mater Christi Multi Academy Trust. Our children read so beautifully in church and parishioners commented on how well behaved they were. I am incredibly proud to be the head teacher of our amazing school.

A HUGE well done to our brilliant V.I.P's, Stars of the Week, Super Scientists, Lunchtime Awards and Times Tables Supernovas!
